Geoffrey D. Rubin, MD, MBA, FACR

Dr. Rubin is the Professor and Chair Department of Medical Imaging, University of Arizona, College of Medicine Tucson. Clinical Service Chief of Medical Imaging, Banner University Medical Group. He currently is the President and Board Chair of the International Society for Computed Tomography, Board Member of RAD-AID International, founding Board Member of the Radiology Leadership Institute of the American College of Radiology, and is the Clinical co-Founder of Informatics in Context.

He served as Chairman of the Department of Radiology at Duke University from 2010-2013. Prior to Duke, he was Professor of Radiology at Stanford University from 1993-2010, serving as Associate Dean for Clinical Affairs in the School of Medicine and Associate Director of the Stanford Cardiovascular Institute from 2005-2010, Chief of Cardiovascular Imaging from 2000-2010, and was elected Vice Chief of Staff by the medical staff of Stanford Hospital and Clinics, serving from 2007-2010. He is Past President of the North American Society for Cardiovascular Imagers, the Society for Computed Body Tomography and Magnetic Resonance, and the Fleischner Society for Thoracic Imaging and Diagnosis.

He is an active public speaker, having made over 1000 presentations to medical, scientific, and lay audiences in over 40 countries.